

Natural Merchants-News To Use This Holiday Season "Make It Organic" with Pizzolato Fields Italian Prosecco

Dear Friends,

Nothing is more perfect for an eco-holiday celebration than a good bottle of organic bubbly, and we are proud to feature a worldly option made with organic grapes from Italy: Pizzolato Fields Prosecco. This no-sugar bubbly is just right for a holiday toast and pairs perfectly with elegant appetizers or dessert.

Consumers continue to search for an alternative to champagne and Prosecco sales have been strong as more people find the delightful Prosecco to be a versatile and delicious drink. It's fantastic for a New Year's Eve toast and makes a wonderful mixer in cocktails and Holiday punches.

We are pleased to offer Italy's number-one selling organic Prosecco - Pizzolato Fields Prosecco. The delightful bubbly is grown and produced in the Veneto region of Italy, made with 100% certified organic grapes. The wine has received outstanding ratings and reviews, including an 88 point rating by *Wine & Spirits.

Wine Enthusiast describes the wine as: "This is a sweet style of Prosecco with a luminous appearance and grassy-herbal notes followed by white peach, honey and jasmine. More herbal flavors appear on the close and the wine is fresh and simple in the mouth."

Please view our video below about the winery La Cantina Pizzolato and their production of Prosecco.
